The Washington dispatches of the Cincinnati Commercial say that the pay of the Census Supervisors is to be only $500 for the job, and not $1,000.

The Nation says: "It is safe to predict that between now and June all the difficulties in the way of General Grant's nomination will increase rather than diminish, and that the boom will end, as it ended in 1876, in a kind of collapse."

WASHINGTON correspondents differ as to whether the deficiency appropriation bill for the United States Marshals will contain the objectionable clause which insured the veto last year or not. The New York Herald correspondent thinks it will.

EX-UNITED STATES SENATOR NORWOOD, of North Carolina, believes that Horatio Seymour would be the most available Democratic candidate for President, because he would have the support of a class of ultra Democratic voters who, the ex-Senator thinks, have not voted since the war.

The bill introduced into the Ohio Legislature, reappointing the Congressional districts of that State, restores to the Sixth district the counties included in it two years ago, viz: Belmont, Jefferson, Harrison, Guernsey and Noble. The Seventeenth district will comprise the counties of Carroll, Columbiana, Stark and Mahoning.

Meeting of the Republican State Committee. The members of this committee will meet in this city to-day at 2 p. m., for the purpose of determining the time and place of holding the next State convention.

The members of the committee are J. T. Hoke, of Mineral county, D. H. Willard, of Mason county, J. S. Cunningham, of Kanawha county, Geo. W. Atkinson, of T. H. Logan and A. W. Campbell, of Ohio county. A vacancy exists in the committee, caused by the resignation of C. C. Cole, formerly of Wood county, now of Washington City, which will be filled to-day.

THE MINERS' WAR ENDED.

The Men Under Bond to Keep the Peace.—"Gentle Peace," in the New River Valley.

HUNTINGTON, January 16. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

The public mind was greatly relieved this morning, when the intelligence came that the miners' war had ended. The trial, which had been pending for two days, against the gentlemen arrested for disturbing Mr. Page's mine, was brought to a close last evening by the court requiring them to give bonds to keep peace against all the world, and the coal miners in particular, for one year.

The grand army of New River evacuated their fortifications at Forman's Hawk's Nest Hotel, this morning. Gentle peace now spreads her wings all over the mines and mountain tops, where grim visaged war has been threatening to hold high carnage and sanguinary revel for some days past.

THE PESTH RIOTS.

LONDON, January 16.—The rioting was renewed in Pesth last evening on the most formidable scale. The gas lamps in the street in front of the Casino club were set on fire, and the rioters were driven back by the police. One policeman was wounded. Twenty-one of the rioters have been arrested.

A correspondent writes that the last and most serious of the Pesth riots is composed of the military circles, and hints that the International Society is at the bottom of the mischief.

The newspapers of all shades of opinion denounce the authors of the tumult. The rioters were driven back by the police, and a declaration disclaiming any connection with the rioting.

A correspondent declares it is extremely doubtful if the rioters are fired, but the rioters were driven back by the police, and a declaration disclaiming any connection with the rioting.

TROUBLE BETWEEN RUSSIAN AND PRUSSIAN SOLDIERS.

BERLIN, January 16.—The reports of a disagreeable affair between Russian and Prussian officers at Kalske, Poland, are fully confirmed, and elicit strong comments from the military circles. The Russian became so excited they actually drew words on their guests, and bloodshed was only prevented by the intervention of the Russian Colonel, who conducted the Prussians to his own quarters and ordered them to be guarded by his troops.

He was in view of the army influence on the Russian policy, will sooner or later, according to opportunity, be translated into action.

IRELAND.

DUBLIN, January 16.—The relief fund instituted by the Duchess of Marlborough amounts to £9,000.

The police executing the process servers at Clintina, county Mayo, were severely maltreated last evening, and were obliged to retreat. Though they had rifles loaded and bayonets fixed, several police were cut about the head and face. The process servers had their clothing torn, and the process were captured by the mob.

RUSSIAN LOVE OF PEACE.

St. Petersburg, January 16.—The inside Russia contradicts the sensational telegrams relative to the alleged Russian military preparations relative to the alleged Russian frontier, and some other official newspapers. The Post says what has occurred shows the sentiment of the Russian army regarding Germany, and that in view of the army influence on the Russian policy, will sooner or later, according to opportunity, be translated into action.

LAMSON APPOINTS HIS STAFF.

AUGUSTA, Me., January 16.—Acting Governor Lamson to-day appointed a staff, which includes Major M. M. Folsom, Adjutant General, and Chief of Staff, General Clark S. Edwards, of Bethel; Inspector General, Dr. Piper, of Thomaston; Surgeon General, Major J. W. Channing, of Fairfield; Dr. Horace Davis, of Biddeford; Captain R. W. Black, of Augusta, and Col. J. W. Black, of Auburn, Aids; Maj. J. W. French, of Eastport, Military Secretary. H. M. Plaisted, of Bangor, was offered the position of Judge Advocate General, but declined.

MILITARY ORDERED TO REPORT FOR DUTY. At five o'clock this morning the Richardson Light Infantry, of Gardner, had orders to appear at their armory at 9 o'clock A. M. The men were gathered there early this morning. There was no disturbance at the State House last evening, and no one was admitted without a pass to-day.

THE REVOLUTIONARY FUSIONISTS. The Boston Herald's Augusta special says: The Senate and House met at 10 A. M. In the House the first business taken up was the report of the Committee on Elections, declaring Wm. Murray, Fusionist, of Vassal county, entitled to a seat instead of Rev. Dr. Nathl. Butler, Republican. The report was accepted, but reconsideration was moved because Mr. Perry, of Camden, wished a full explanation of the case.

Mr. Dickey, from that committee, stated that no check list was used at the election; that the notice of the meeting was not legal; that one of the Assessors passed the ballot box out of doors to allow a sick man in a carriage to vote, and that there were sundry other reasons why the action was not legal.

The motion to reconsider failed, and Mr. Murray was escorted to the Executive Chamber to take the oath. Murray's admission brings the number of the members of the House present up to seventy-seven according to a count of the tellers. The House voted to send the names of Joseph L. Smith and Alonzo Garcelon to the Senate. The number of votes was seventy.

The report of the Committee on Governmental Votes having been read and accepted in the Senate it was sent to the House, where a similar action was taken. Mr. Dickey, of Ft. Kent, moved to suspend the rules so that the House might fix a time for the choice of four candidates for Governor, to be sent up to be voted on by the Senate. The motion was carried and on motion of Mr. Springfield an order was adopted fixing the time at 11:15.

Mr. Plaisted, of Lincoln, took an opposite view. He reviewed the situation and declared that the time had come for immediate action. He made a severe attack on General Chamberlain for declining to recognize Lamson as acting Governor, and held the General responsible for the present condition of affairs.

NOTHING BUT RIOTING. At the conclusion of Mr. Plaisted's remarks, which extended past the time set for the choice of candidates, and during which he declared himself resolved to stand by the legality of this House so long as the drop of blood remained in its veins, the sentiment was loudly applauded.

Mr. McLaughlin, by general consent, made a brief speech endorsing his views. THE FUSIONISTS ELECT SMITH GOVERNOR.

Mr. Swan, of Minot, moved, and the House ordered, that a committee of five be appointed to receive, sort and count the votes for the candidates to be sent to the Senate, and the Speaker appointed the committee, who at once proceeded to their duty. The names of Joseph L. Smith and Alonzo Garcelon were the only ones printed on the ballots, and the report of the committee showed that Smith and Garcelon had seventy-six votes. The announcement was greeted with applause, and the report of the committee was adopted.

The Senate unanimously elected Smith Governor, receiving eighteen votes.

CHAMBERLAIN REPORTED BOUNCED. It is reported on good authority that an executive order has been prepared, relieving Gen. Chamberlain from his command. The order will be served this afternoon. The General has as yet no intimation to that effect.
